2. Regulation of Mental Health Professionals in Colorado

The Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA) regulates mental health professionals. The Division of Professions and Occupations can be contacted at:

State Board of Licensed Professional Counselor Examiners / State Board of Psychologist Examiners

1560 Broadway, Suite 1350, Denver, CO 80202

Phone: (303) 894-7800 | Email: dora_mentalhealthboard@state.co.us

Definitions of Roles and Restricting Qualifications (Colorado Law Mandate):

- Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) / Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor (LCPC): Must hold a master's or doctoral degree in professional counseling, complete a minimum of 2,000 hours of post-degree supervised experience, and pass a national clinical examination.
- Licensed Professional Counselor Candidate (LPCC): Must hold an approved master's or doctoral degree in professional counseling and be registered with the state to complete their post-degree supervised hours under a licensed professional.
- Psychologist Candidate: Must hold a doctoral degree in clinical or counseling psychology and be registered with the state to complete post-doctoral supervised practice hours required for full licensure.
- National Certified Counselor (NCC): A premier commercial certification held by counselors who have met high national standards for the practice of counseling.
- Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselor (CADC): A specialist certified to provide counseling services specifically addressing substance use disorders, addictions, and recovery systems.
- Certified Peer Support Specialist (PSS) / Mentor: A non-clinical professional certified to use their lived experience to provide structural support, advocacy, and guidance to individuals navigating recovery, mental health, or community reintegration.
- Certified Moral Reconnection Therapy (MRT) Facilitator: A professional specifically trained and certified to implement cognitive-behavioral programming focused on moral reasoning, positive identity, and behavior modification.

3. Client Rights (DORA & ACA Standards)

- You are entitled to receive information from your provider about the methods of therapy, the techniques used, the duration of therapy (if known), and the fee structure.
- You may seek a second opinion from another therapist or terminate treatment at any time.
- In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the board that regulates the licensed professional.

4. Confidentiality & Limits of Confidentiality

Information provided by a client during therapy or peer support sessions is legally confidential and cannot be released without written consent, with the exception of specific legal exclusions. Pursuant to Colorado Law (C.R.S. § 12-245-220) and the American

Counseling Association (ACA) Ethical Code, confidentiality cannot be maintained under the following circumstances:

- Abuse or Neglect: If there is reason to suspect child abuse or neglect, or the abuse/exploitation of an at-risk elder or dependent adult.
- Danger to Self: If you present an imminent danger to your own safety.
- Danger to Others: If you communicate a serious threat of imminent physical violence against a clearly identified victim or the public.
- Court Orders: If a judge issues a subpoena or court order compelling the release of clinical records.
- Professional Supervision: Non-licensed staff, candidates, and peer support specialists operate under the direct clinical supervision of a Licensed Professional Counselor, and cases are regularly reviewed to ensure quality of care.

5. Therapeutic Approaches

The KBH Center utilizes an integrative care model. Depending on your treatment plan and provider assignments, your care team may utilize the following therapeutic modalities:

- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT): Focuses on identifying and shifting counterproductive thought patterns to change behavioral and emotional responses.
- Rational Emotive Behavioral Therapy (REBT): Works to uncouple disruptive emotional consequences from illogical belief systems.
- Gestalt Therapy: Emphasizes present-moment awareness, personal responsibility, and holistic integration of mind and body.
- Gottman Method & Imago Relationship Therapy: Evidence-based approaches utilized in couples coaching to restructure communication and connection.
- Structural Family Therapy: Evaluates the sub-systems, boundaries, and patterns of interaction within the family unit.
- Person-Centered Therapy: A supportive, non-judgmental framework prioritizing client autonomy and self-actualization.

6. Financial Policies, Fees & Cancellations

- Standard Fee: $175 per hour for standard individual or couples sessions.
- Cancellation Policy: A minimum of 24 hours' notice is required to cancel or reschedule an appointment.
- No-Show Policy: If you fail to show up for a scheduled appointment without giving proper notice, the no-show fee assessed to your account will be strictly dependent upon what is allowed and governed by your specific insurance provider. Clients are directly responsible for any out-of-pocket balances or fees not covered by third-party payers.
